THE 1982 SABIDURIA IS DEDICATED TO:

The Participants of the men's basketball program -- for all the work and endurance, time and effort, and the determination put forth by the team over the years.

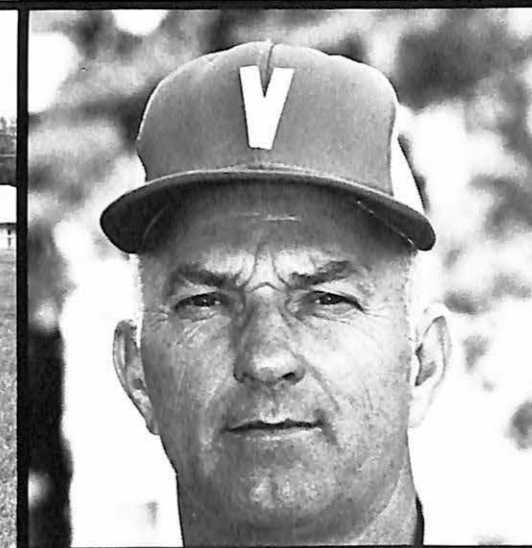

The Supporters of the men's basketball program -- who have supported the teams through the years, giving support and encouragement during good times and bad times.

The Coaches of the men's basketball program -- who exercised patience and understanding, who worked with the teams and demanded hard work of them, and without whom Valley would not have had a basketball program

And to the 1981-82 Basketball Team -- for their 14-13 record.

AUGUST

VICTORY!!!

August marked the beginning of the 1981-1982 year at Valley. Registration was held, new students arrived, and football practice began.

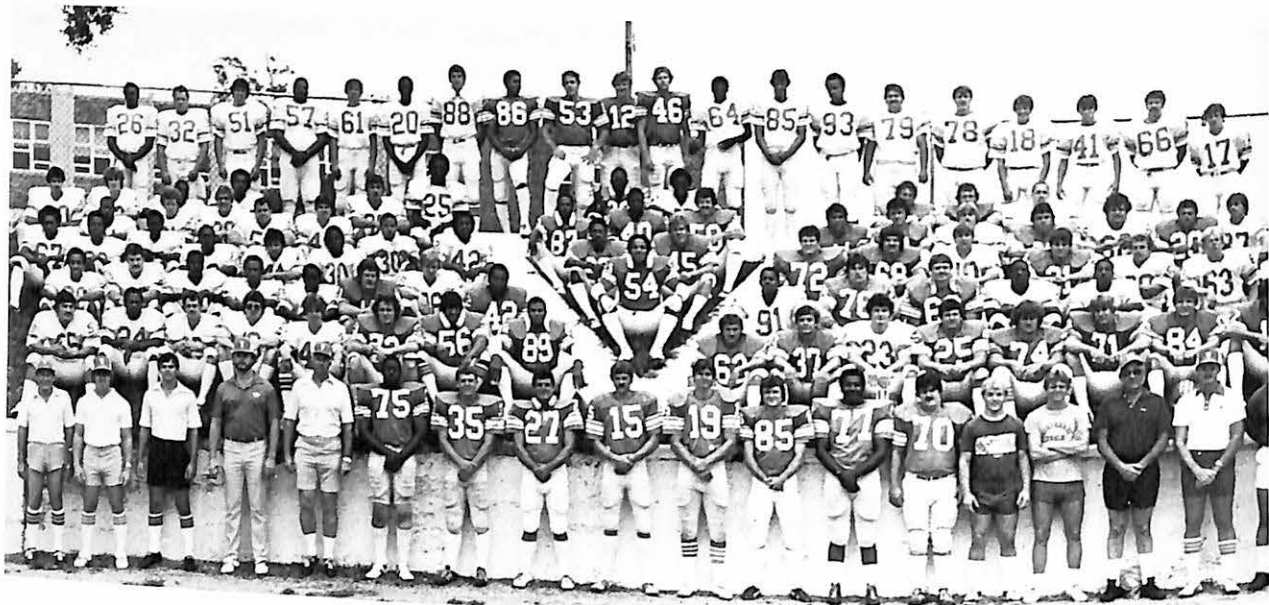

August was warm and peaceful. It set the mood for the opening of the college for another year. The Opening Convocation was held on the last day of August in the cafeteria.

August marked a new beginning for many new Valley "family" members. Freshmen from all over the United States came to Marshall to attend Missouri Valley College. Some were disappointed, others were extremely happy, and others simply didn't care. Many students were away from home for the first time; facing responsibilities that they had not faced before, doing laundry, finding one's own food, and cleaning up after one's own self.

August brought to mind a poem:

THE SHIRKER

You know him. He is a member of your organization. He is a great talker, full of promises but seldom performs. He is selfish, wants all the praise but never gives any. When the pictures are taken, he wants to be in the front line in order to give the impression that he is the bulwark of all activities. When he is not the head of an important committee, he is very hurt, but when offered such responsibility and is not successful, he can find all kinds of excuses as to why the project was a failure. He accepts none of the responsibility himself but always places the blame on someone else. He is smart enough, however, to ride along at the expense of others. He never thinks of others. He is too busy thinking of himself. He is the "SHIRKER," but in his opinion, he is the most important member in your organization.

SEPTEMBER

READY, SET, GO!!!

We Study

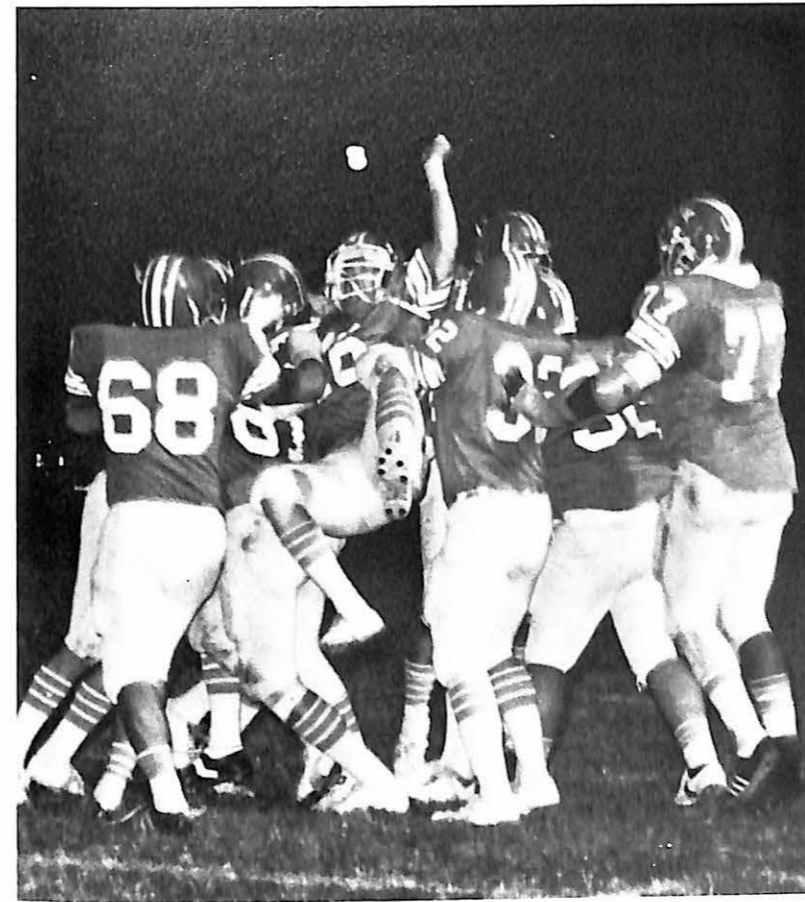

September marked the beginning of classes for the new school year at Valley. Students were busy with many activities, and getting to know each other and making new friends as well as renewing old friendships. The football season began, and such groups as the "V" Club ran the concession stand. The Gamma Sigs aided in the printing of a new student handbook. The freshman class elected officers and began to work on plans for Homecoming.

September was a month of many changes. Students began to socialize and participate in campus activities. Life at Valley began to roll.

AND HER NAME WAS MAUD.

Before us we have a picture of one of the famous statues of the world, entitled "Maud: a Mystery." And as Maud, the subject passed a life of mystery, so this statue erected to perpetuate her fame, presents an unsolved enigma.

No one knows what Maud really was. Some say she was a mule of extraordinary intelligence and humor, who featured in Sunday stunts for the benefit of the comic papers. Others say that she was a horse and passed a life of quiet and sedate dignity, drawing about the avocation (i. e., the milk cart) of Dr. Black, President of Missouri Valley College. The facts will probably never be known—nor will we ever know what master hand, skillful and capricious, in the still watches of last Hallow-e'en night, carved and fashioned this statue and left it on the stage of the old Chapel of M. V. C.

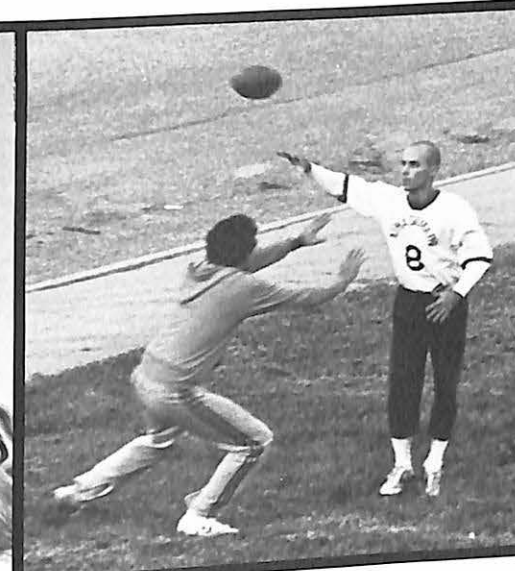

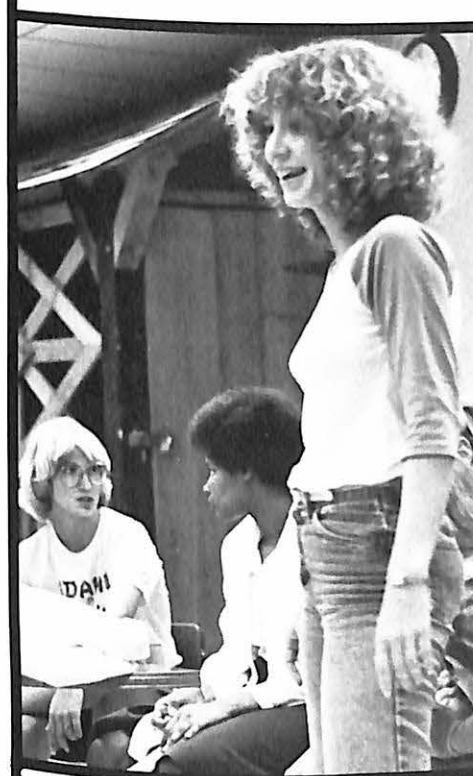

Of the boys who viewed the wonder next morning, some looked surprised, others amused, a few self-conscious, and quite a number, guilty. That same night the gig, which served as Dr. Black's "avocation" had disappeared from its place in the doctor's stable. I mention these things merely as contemporary events and not as having any bearing on how the statue came to be.

OCTOBER

Homecoming

October was the month for friends, parents, and alumni to come and visit the Valley campus. The girls of Mac Hall held a reception for the alumni and parents. The "V" Club held a raffle during Homecoming Week. The freshman bon-fire started the festivities off. The Homecoming parade began Homecoming Day. Many of the halls and houses made floats for the parade. The Valley Players dressed up as clowns for the event. It was a beautiful day, and the victory by the football team set everyone in the right mood for the dance that evening.

October was also the month of Halloween. The Gamma Sigs sponsored a pumpkin carving contest. The Student Missouri State Teachers Association sold candy-grams for Halloween. A benefit dance was held by Gamma Sigma Sigma for a children's home. The Gamma Sigs also decorated the Senior Citizens Nutrition Center. October was a very busy time for everyone here at Valley.

T.V.: Doug Delisa, Mike Booth, Jim Branson, Joe Chapman, Larry Koch, John McCallum, Don Winkler, Tami Beyer, Lynda Uthlaut, and Russ Collins (seated).

William Jewell — Missouri Valley Debate

- 7:45—Christian Association meetings disturbed by discussions of whether we will get a holiday.
- 8:00—Students gather on the stairs and relieve themselves thus, Walla-walla woo, Walla-walla wee, Holiday, Holiday, M. V. C.
- 8:02—Prof. Grube tries to disperse students to classes. They ride him on their shoulders.
- 8:08—Students parade corridors with Faculty on their shoulders. Forcibly demand holiday.
- 8:20—Corral the Faculty in the office. Forcibly demand holiday.
- 8:30—Faculty escape and drive students to classes at the point of the flunk.
- 10:00—Omnibus decorated in purple and gold appears at west entrance. Grube barricades himself in office. Students storm office.
- 10:10—Rest of faculty forcibly loaded in omnibus. Storm office again. Grube capitulates—unconditionally.
- 10:15—Remove horses from omnibus and students pull it with rope. Start for public square.
- 10:30—Parade streets with debaters on shoulders, giving college yells intermittently. Natives astonished.
- 11:15—Still parading. Faculty wavering. Quiet enough to have picture taken.
- 11:30—Faculty surrender and grant holiday. Congratulations all around. Are taken home. Students hold special chapel services and then d'sperse. Great silence at M. V. C.

Activities

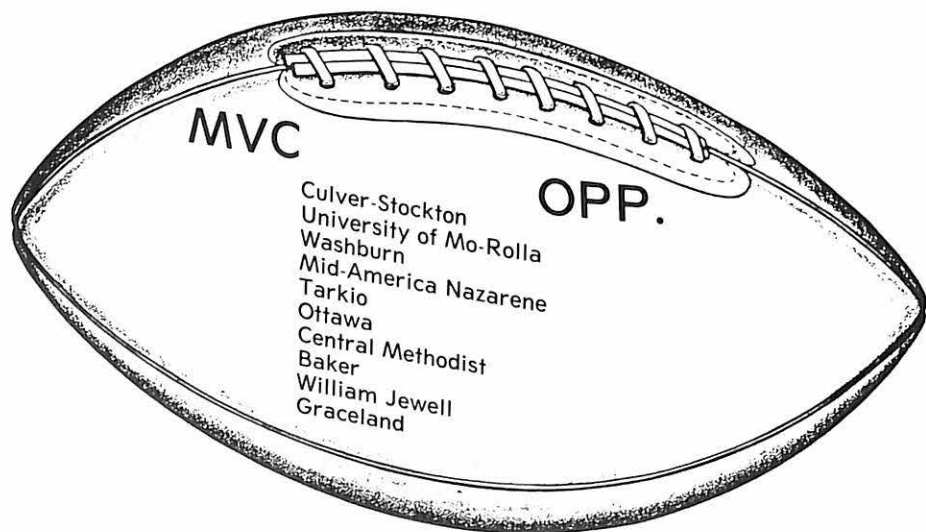

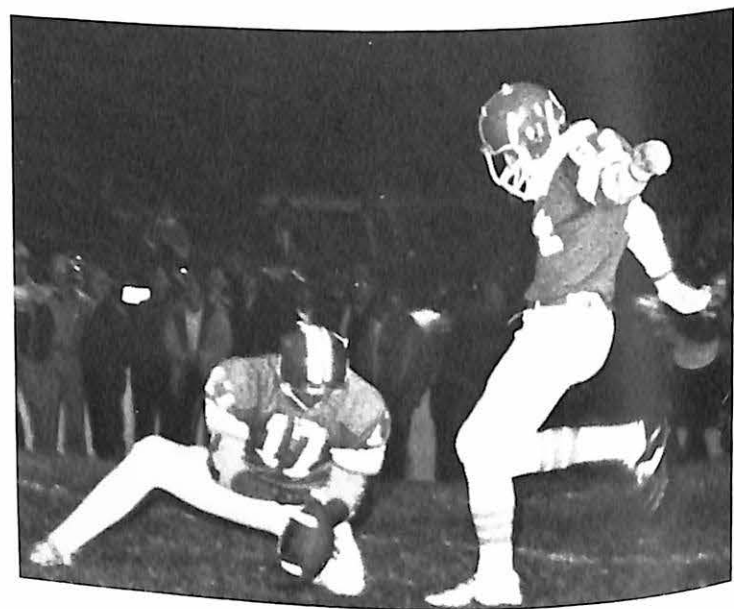

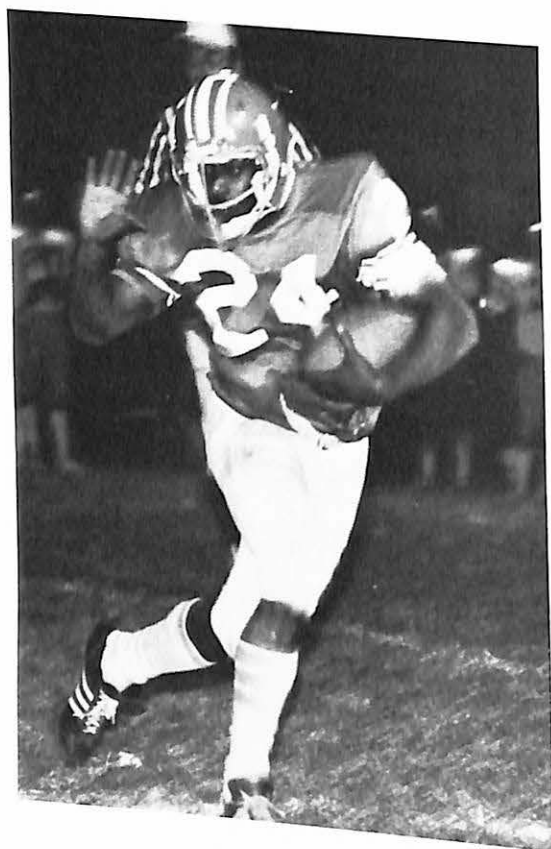

November is for giving thanks and for Thanksgiving. The Gamma Sigs and TKE held a canned food drive. Alpha Sigma Alpha sponsored a Thanksgiving Day dinner.

November also marked the first production of the new year. The fall play "I Never Sang For My Father" was presented the 13th through the 15th. The Outing Club went on a trip to Lake Pomm De Terr. The members of A.S.A. held a Founders Day ceremony for the alumni.

November brought about many changes. We were all starting to get used to our "new" lives as Valley students. The weather began to get colder and our Valley family grew closer, as the football team continued to play exceptionally well.

DECEMBER

Christmas

December was a short but busy month here at Valley. In addition to preparing for finals many students were busy with other happenings. The men's basketball team started a season that would prove to be one of the best seasons in years. The Student Missouri State Teachers Association sponsored it's first story hour of the year for the children of the Marshall community. The Gamma Sig's held a blood drive to also benefit the community of Marshall and others.

December was also a very busy month for the members of the College Activities Board. The annual Hanging of the Greens, with all the candles and preparation, really brought out family together for the holidays. Doc Hult entertained in the Student Lounge after the Hanging of the Greens. C.A.B. also sponsored a Christmas Dance and Banquet. A.S.A. sponsored a Christmas Party After all the parties and finals ended, Semester Break began! Yea!

Honor

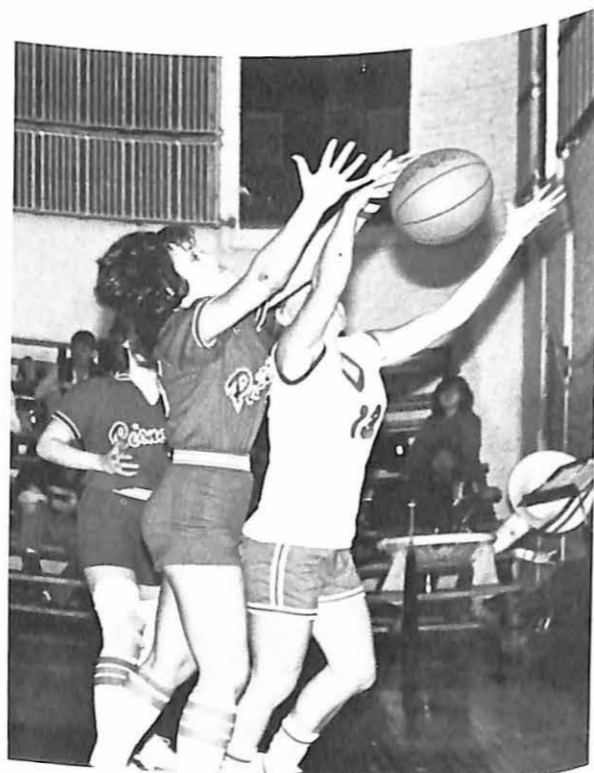

January brought everyone back together for the second semester. The College Activities Board held a New Year's Dance to welcome everyone back to Valley.

January also brought Steve Gibson to our campus. Along with Steve, several laughs and good times came to Valley.

January also marked the resumption of Court Warming. Court Warming 1982 was the first such event since 1961. Miss Maxine Mapel was crowned queen. Brian Dickerson and Harry Franklin tied for Court Warming king. The Marshall High School Pom Pon squad performed the half-time shows. The Nanettes performed the pre-game shows. Special cheerleaders were also assembled for this event, which was sponsored by C.A.B. Although it was still cold outside we were all warm and carried the warmth in our hearts.

FEBRUARY

Look To The Future

February is known for Valentines Day and at Valley many events were planned for Valentines Day. Mac Hall held a party in their lobby. The College Activities Board held a dance in the Snack Bar. The music was provided by DJ's from the KNOS, the campus radio station. The members of the A.S.A. sold Val-O-Grams the 5th through the 11th. The Council for Exceptional Children held a dance for handicapped children on February 11. The Student Missouri State Teachers Association held a Valentines Story hour on the 12th.

February also had many activities that were not directed at Valentines Day. A.S.A. initiated five new members and three new sweeties. Deb Jo Stubblefield and Suzanne Stemme received a Phoenix Degree. The Black Student Union became an official campus organization. The play, "The American Dame" was presented by the drama department.

MARCH

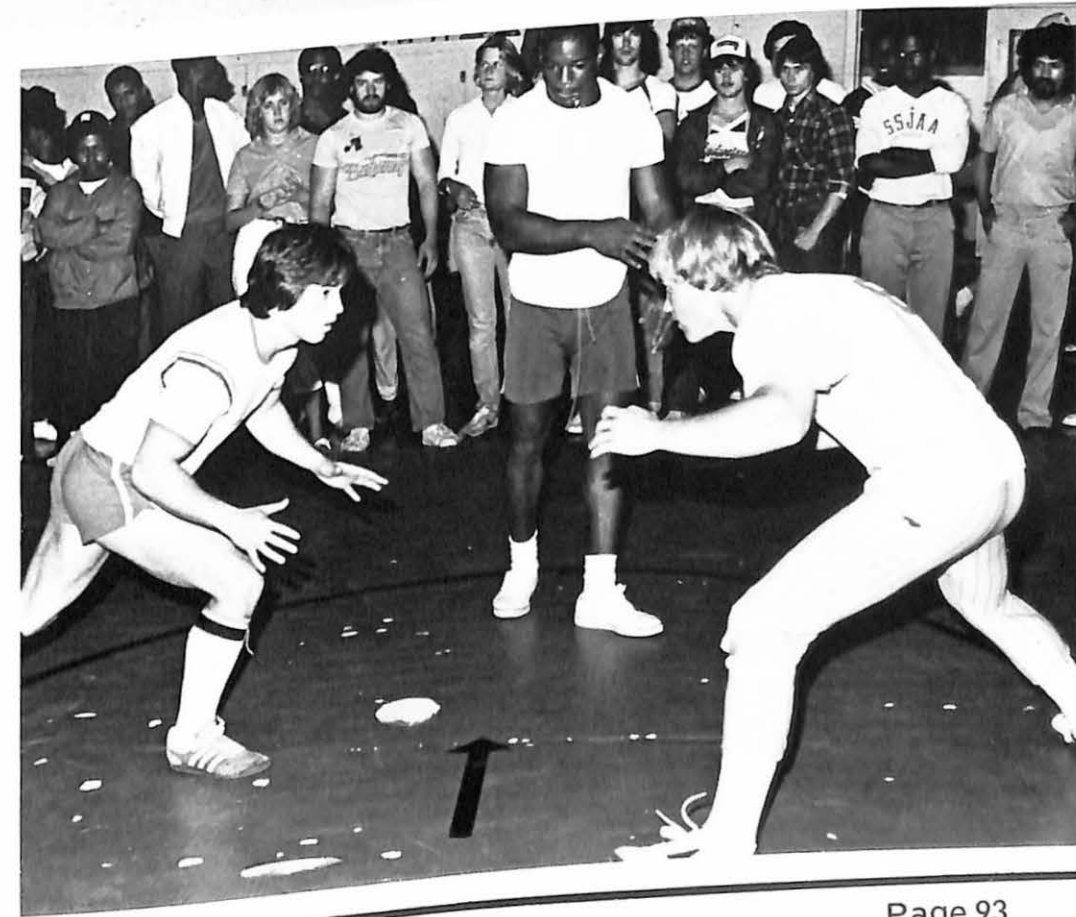

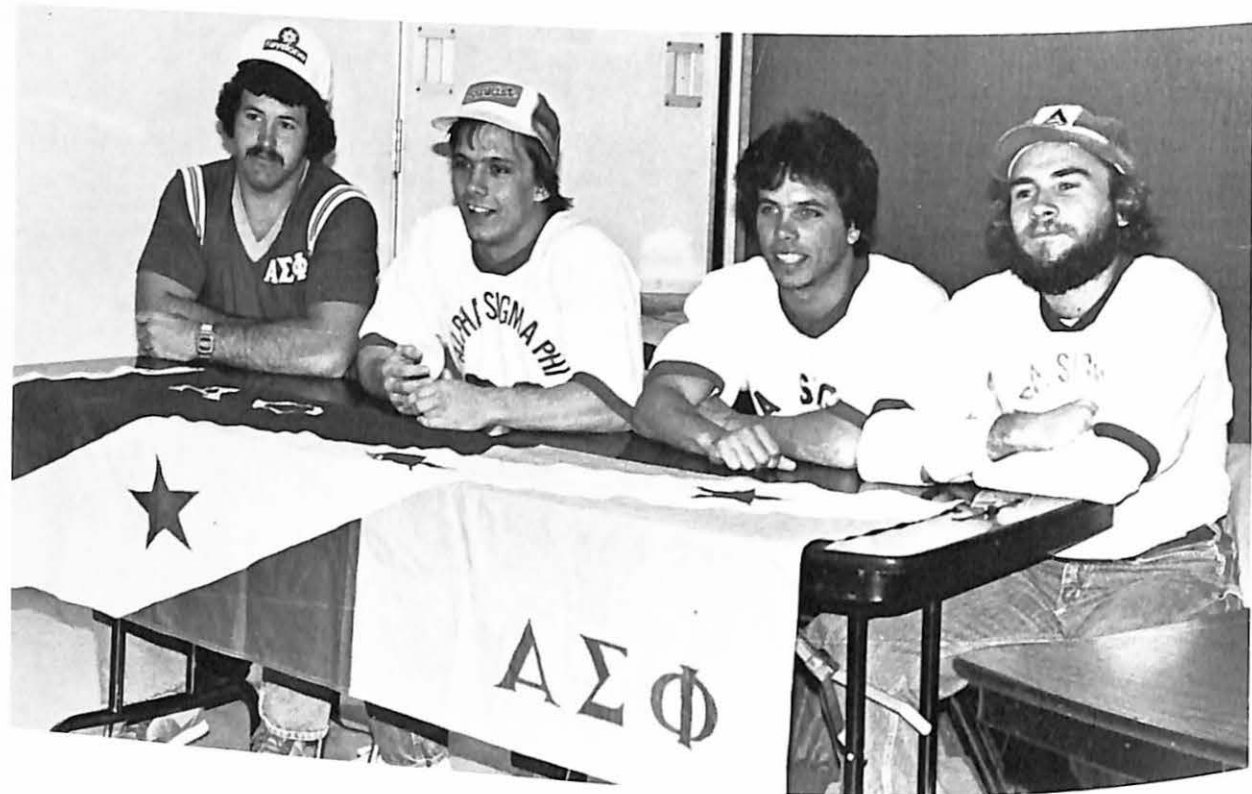

Scenes

March carried a lot of excitement in the field of intramural sports as the Mooreland Dogs captured the number one spot in the "A" League Basketball Championships. The Gamma Sigma Sigma Sorority held their formal at the Bothwell Hotel in Sedalia.

March began with some laughs as the Metro Theatre Circus came to Valley and did two performances in Mabee Chapel, on the first. Jasmine made a very impressive showing on the 25th. The Outing Club went on a float trip to Buffalo River in Arkansas.

APRIL

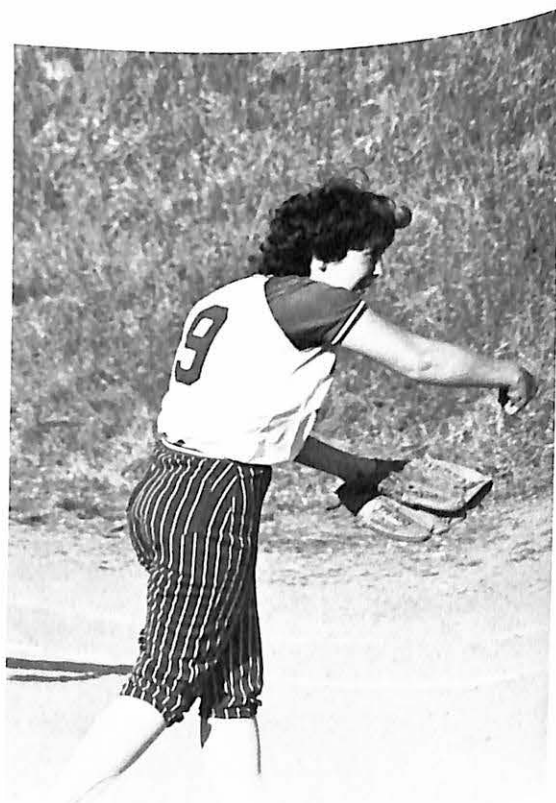

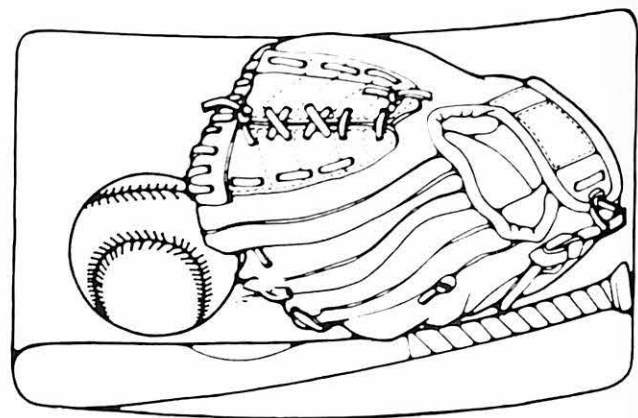

Banquets

April brought Spring to Valley and the students of Valley sprung into action. The Student Missouri State Teachers Association attended their state convention in Columbia the 2nd and 3rd. The A.S.A. state convention was held in the same weekend in Springfield. Chris Bliss performed on the 4th, and a sports lecture was presented on the 8th. Both of these events were paid for by C.A.B. The S-MSTA sponsored two more story hours — one for Easter and one for National Library Week. S-MSTA also sponsored Ecology Day, and held a rummage-bake sale to raise money. The members of A.S.A kept busy by having an Easter Egg hunt for the State School and hosting their own Spring Banquet.

April brought The Rocky Horror Picture Show to Valley. The movie was shown twice — once at 8:00 p.m. and once at midnight. April also brought the Special Olympics to Valley as well as the annual telethon. The "V" Club held their annual banquet on the 26th. MVC also hosted the Women's Softball Conference championships. The Gamma Sigs held a clothing drive. Young Hall week was held the 19th through the 23rd. April brought to the stage musical comedy of "The Wizard of Oz". The play was performed in front of a full house all three nights.

MAY

Commencement

May brought the year to a close, and gives an ending to this book. C.A.B. sponsored a May Day Dance on the first, and the Sunshine Arts and Crafts Festival on the 8th.

May brought graduation for the seniors who had spent four years of their lives in college. Graduation was held on the football field. The seniors were now gone and it was time to take those awful tests called finals again. Study time was hard to find, but we found it, and soon finals were completed. The members of our Valley family each went their separate ways. Some will keep in touch with each other while others will wait until the new year. It was time to go, I thought I could hardly wait, but when it was suddenly time I didn't want to leave. I would be leaving friends — some I would see all summer long, some I would see again next fall, and some never again. However, this year will live on in my mind and through this book.

PEOPLE

Social

People. We are all people and in some way do something unique or different — something to make us each our own individual. Each and every person on the Valley campus has a different personality and a different view of things. People are something very special. Without the people of Valley this book could not have been made.

Fellow Students,

This is it. The end. This yearbook has attempted to show life at Valley during the 1981 fall semester and the 1982 spring semester as it happened, beginning with August and ending in May.

Although the staff was small, usually one person, those who helped put this book together deserve a thank you.

Thanks to Virgil Brown and Russ Collins for taking all the fine pictures contained on these pages.

Thanks to Julie Thomas, the Business Manager, who sold advertisements to help raise money to print this book.

Thanks to Maryfran Houston for her help in identifying the people whom I couldn't.

Thanks to Laura Corey for being my co-editor.

Thanks to Jeani Wilson, the advisor, for checking over my work before it went to press.

And a special thanks to the organizational presidents who completed and returned the activity sheets that were used in writing the month's summaries on the division pages.

I have thoroughly enjoyed putting together the 1982 Sabiduria. I only regret the lack of help I received and the student participation. I truly hope it increases as time marches on. The yearbook is the only permanent record of the year for most students, and it would be a great tragedy if the Sabiduria were to cease publication.

I am very pleased with the 1982 Sabiduria and I hope that you, the Valley student, will be too. I only hope that there will be a Sabiduria 1983.
