Dr. Alton E. Harris

In Memoriam...

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful, but his delight is in the law of the Lord and is in His law doth he mediate day and night.

Dr. Clifton Gray

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The coronation banquet was held on October 18, 1979 in the Ferguson Center to kick off the Homecoming weekend. Homecoming queen candidates: Amy Greenwood, Lori Stengle, Rhonda Moore, and Suzanne Gibson, were honored at the banquet. Mary Fran Houston, banquet chairman, presented a short program with comments from Dr. Robert Glass, college president and Ken Gibler, head football coach. The dedication of Homecoming was to Bryon Banta by Tony Sikora and Tami Beyer, Homecoming chairmen. According to the chairmen, Mr. Banta was chosen to receive the honor for his many years of service and dedication to Missouri Valley College and its students.

The Homecoming dance following the banquet was coordinated by Chris Rawley. Nickels, a St. Louis based band, played for the occasion. The annual torch run took place with event chairman, Joe Chapman and the speciality team starting from College Mound to Marshall. College Mound is the site of one of the original colleges that eventually joined with two other schools to form Missouri Valley College. The 1979 torch run is dedicated to past and present Missouri Valley College presidents.

Last of Mrs. Lincoln

The Last of Mrs. Lincoln, was written by James Prideaux about Mary Todd Lincoln, after the death of her husband, President Lincoln. Being an accurate historical account of her life, the play opens in 1865 and goes through her death in 1882. This moving drama shows the torment she went through because of the death of her husband and two sons, and lack of financial support from the government for whom her husband had done so much. Finally, as she escapes in and out of reality, her son has her committed into a private sanitarium. When she is released, she finds renewed hope for living through the friendship of her young nephew.

Greek Week Greek Week Champs Sigma Nu

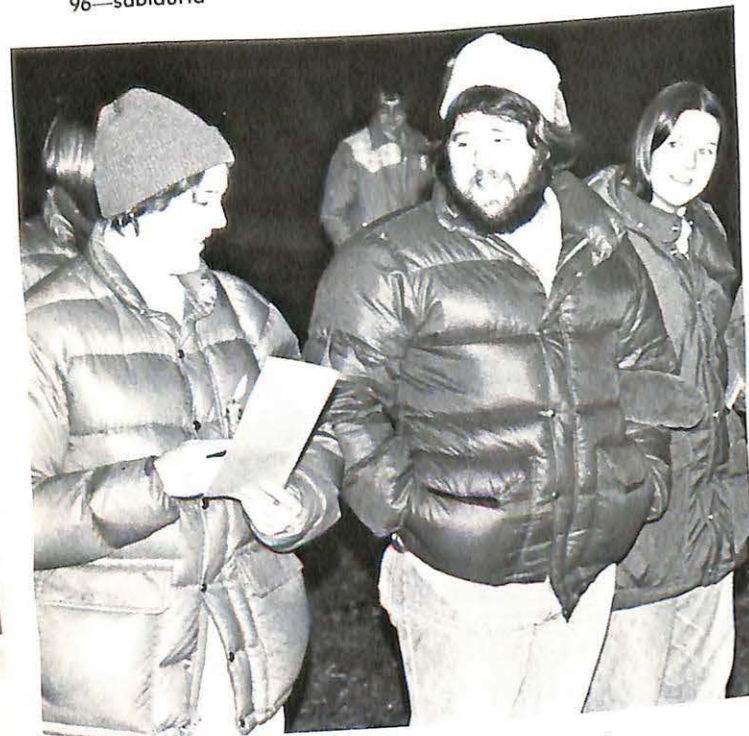

The three fraternities on campus, Sigma Nu, Tau Kappa Epsilon and Alpha Sigma Phi, got together to revive a tradition that has not been around for a few years—Greek Week. Greek Week is a time when the three fraternities do battle in various feats of skill, athletic and academic alike. The main goal for Greek Week is to promote Greek unity and give every greek a chance to really get involved with their houses. It also gets each house's personal pride involved. Even though the games are for everyone's enjoyment, the incentive to win the trophy for Greek supremacy shows through in the efforts from all who participate and those cheering on the sidelines in every event, ranging from arr. wrestling, to the quiz bowl, to the pie eating contest. The activities climax was a picnic at the park where all of the Greeks met to celebrate the week's work.

Play Fair

On September 12, 1979, Missouri Valley College was host to Mat Weinstein in Playfair. Playfair is a composite of games, involving group participation, designed to create a close community spirit. College Activities Board officials estimate that approximately 200 people attended. Many different games were played in the course of the afternoon. All were aimed toward getting total participation from each individual and making a close knit whole out of the group. There were games such as "Moonwalk," "Amoeba Tag," "Back to Back Dancing." Playfair apparently made an impression on Missouri Valley College.

As editor of the 1980 Sabiduria, I would like to personally thank Jim Branson for all the extra photography that was needed desperately. Also, I would like to thank Molly Davis, Tony Sikora (Who is Molly Hatchet?), and Jeanie Wilson for the layout design, and the 1980 Sabiduria Staff.

I really hope that the students of Missouri Valley College enjoy the 1980 Sabiduria as much as they did the 1979 yearbook.

Sincerely
Ricky A. Reid, Editor
